Women's Assault Prevention Seminar

It is estimated that 33% of women will be assaulted by age 24, and the majority of them will know and trust their attacker. Women's assault prevention is a lot more than just learning how to hit or kick. It's about learning how predators think and how to identify dangerous situations before they become violent. This seminar will include a power point discussing the dangers young women face, as well as hands on self-defense training taught by retired and decorated police officer, and nationally recognized assault prevention expert, Mike Austin.

Also joining Mike will be female assistants who have faced the dangers that will be addressed.
